THE OCSAPN SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

The OCSAPN scholarships are funded and awarded on a quarterly basis to help offset expenses for attendance at “At-Risk” prevention programs, trainings, seminars, and conferences.

Applications receiving scholarships are required to submit a report about the event, at the first general membership meeting following the event, to all network members. An oral report is preferred. The report either written or oral should include: the event attended, a discussion of the topics presented, and the value of this event to the applicant.

Quarterly award dates are as follows:

First quarter; on or about January 31.
Second quarter; on or about April 30.

Third quarter; on or about July 31.
Fourth quarter; on or about October 31.

CRITERIA FOR SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

The Executive Committee will use the following criteria when evaluating requests for scholarships:

- Training must be related to the prevention of at-risk behavior in adolescents or families.
- First priority will be given to parent/student volunteers, or those showing economic need, over professional or agency personnel.
- Second priority will be given to the applications in the order they are received.
- The decisions of the Executive Committee are final and will be announced at the monthly general membership meetings.
